

Tuesday, 13th March, 2018

L.O. To write an effective blurb.

Two African folktales in a heartwarming tale of friendship. As many siblings do, these two beautiful sisters argue; have you? These contrasting sisters have an extremely big rivalry. The royal king of Africa has announced his looking for a kind and beautiful wife; but only one could be chosen will it be the good one or the bad one. If the king the king's decision - who will he choose?

Friday 2nd March 2018

LO: To understand the difference between magic and miracles. 4A

Success criteria

	I can discuss the similarities and differences between magic and miracles.
	I can reflect on Jesus' miracle of turning water into wine.
	I can explain how a Christian perceives the miracles of Jesus.

I think there is a difference between magic and miracles because magicians learn magic while if you can perform miracles you have it in you already. ✓

One of the differences between magic and miracles is that magicians do magic for you to be puzzled while miracles have a life lesson in them. ✓

Magicians sometimes do magic for money and a miracle is to help other people. ✓

A similarity between magic and miracles is that they both confuse you and they're both amazingly jaw-dropping. They are both unbelievable and make you hesitate 'how?!' ✓

A similarity is that they are both magical, impressive and you end up speechless. ✓

You have clearly stated similarities and differences between magic and miracles. Well done!

⚡ If you met someone who performed a miracle, what would you ask them?
Who did you do it!?

SONNY STONEHOUSE - SAPPHIRE CLASS

~~As another important~~ reason why I have decided to come to your party is because I think I would enjoy the library I think I'd also really enjoy ~~is party~~ this party of the party # because it will be quiet zone. ~~thank~~ thank you for inviting me to your wonderful party and I think it will be fun ~~and~~ love from Hobart Jackson.

ELIZA HARDY - RUBY CLASS

To

Mummy

I love

you!

Love from

Eliza xx