LO: I am learning to reflect on the St Johns' Christian values

Success criteria

	I can name the Christian values and I can describe what they mean.
	I have written about a few of the Christian values and I have related them to my own life experiences.
	I have written about a few of the Christian values and I have related them to my own life experiences.

Friendship

Friendship is when two or more people stick together, always care about each other and never let one another down. In my own experiences, there was a time when my closest friend was very upset, and I cheered her up by making her laugh. Friendship is important because without any friends, you may grow up alone and feeling lonely all the time, with no one to love and care for you.

Job Title: Dancer

Location: London

Salary: £50,000

Job Description:

Would you like to show off your moves on a stage? If you have faith in your heart that you could let yourself free and just DANCE then the studio is also yours. This is the right job for you!

Our attractive package includes:

- A chance to set free on stage.
- Go on different tours.
- Meet your very own fans.
- Dance with famous dancers.

You will be based in London at my DF studio (dance free!) where you will go where your hearts take you as the music plays.

Responsibilities:

- You need to be sensible when people ask for your autograph or photo.
- Make your own routines.
- Improve your routines.
- Prepare for a sudden fire alarm.
- Look after the studio.

Qualifications:

You will need to have to experience at least one time even if it wasn't for dancing.

Other information:

As a popular dancer you cannot get distracted by any fans because your level will go lower and lower.
