Childhood Events

Henry was born on the 28th June 1491 at a big palace called Greenwich palace, it <sup>was</sup> very beautiful. The boy's mum was Elizabeth of York and his father had died very sad. He had six siblings - only three of them survived infancy. At least he still had <sup>three</sup> three siblings. His closest friend was his cousin, William Compton, Charles Brandon and Henry Norris. This tells us that he was popular at court.

Early life events and Achievements

The King was known to be very clever <sup>6</sup> because he learnt French, Latin and Greek. He was educated in theology, also he became King in 1509. He loved hunting and very good at sports <sup>the</sup> is what he is good at (archery, sword fighting). Henry the VIII grew to be tall, handsome man who was <sup>loved</sup> loved by his people in England. He was a very popular king.
