

Individual Liberty

We all have the freedom to make our own choices. We show kindness to everyone.

British Values

Rule of Law

Rules and laws help to keep us safe. We are all responsible for upholding rules and laws.

British Values

Democracy

Our opinions are valued; in turn we must also value the opinions of others. We make decisions together.

British Values

Mutual Respect & Tolerance

We respect and learn from each other's differences. We always treat others as we want to be treated.

British Values

Sex

The label male or female, given to you at birth by a doctor.

Protected Characteristics

Sexual Orientation

You may be attracted to people of a specific or multiple genders, of no specific gender, or you may not be attracted to others at all. This may change over time for some people.

Protected Characteristics

Age

How old you are.

Protected Characteristics

Disability

A physical or mental impairment that impacts someone's ability to carry out day-to-day activities. Disabilities are not always visible to others.

Protected Characteristics

Gender reassignment

When somebody decides they want to change their sex, or they do change their sex.

Protected Characteristics

Marriage and Civil Partnership

Whether you are married or in a civil partnership. This can be with someone of the same or a different sex.

Protected Characteristics

Pregnancy and maternity

Being pregnant, including the time following the birth of the baby.

Protected Characteristics

Race

A group of people who could be the same race or colour, come from or live in the same place or share cultural characteristics such as language, history, traditions etc.

Protected Characteristics

Religion or belief

Following a religion or holding a belief, or a lack of either religion or belief, that affects the way you live and your life choices.

Protected Characteristics